QUESTIONS / COMMENTS TO THE GENERAL MEETING

MESSAGING

Written questions or comments on the items on the agenda can be submitted by shareholders throughout the general meeting.

To view published questions from other shareholders, or if you yourself wish to ask questions or comment on any of the items on the agenda, select MESSAGES

All shareholders who submit questions or comments will be identified to other shareholders by name, but not by shareholding.

Questions submitted online will be moderated before they are published and will be sent to the meeting chair. Submitted questions will therefore not necessarily appear immediately. If you have technical questions or similar, you will be able to get a direct answer from the moderator that only you will see.

The company also opens up for oral questions from logged-in shareholders, and you will find the button "request to speak" in the live broadcast. By using this option, you will have your voice directly into the general meeting and you can speak for as long as the meeting chair allows. Audio is two-way so that you can give your input, receive answers and then make follow-up questions/comments if desired.
